

Enhancing Legal Compliance

Led by the Legal Affairs Office of the Assets and Liabilities Managing Department the Bank is building systems for maintaining compliance with laws and regulations and proper bank management, and is making efforts to foster employees with a strong sense of ethics.

Legal compliance system

The Bank has stipulated the Code of Conduct based on the CSR Charter, our management principles. A Legal Compliance Committee chaired by the senior managing director of the Bank takes the lead in observation of this Code of Conduct and thorough compliance with laws and regulations, and once every six months we draw up a Compliance Program and endeavor to implement it.

Specifically, training is conducted every year at each department, branch and affiliate in accordance with set themes, and the extent to which the training has been understood is monitored by the head office. Departments, branches and affiliates which are determined not to understand it sufficiently redouble their efforts and try to strengthen their legal compliance system by continuously implementing the PDCA cycle.

In fiscal year 2014, we will thoroughly carry out road safety, and hold training in line with themes each branch and affiliate has set.

Whistle-blowing system established

In order to promote compliance management, we have established a legal compliance help line (24 hours a day) for employees to contact when they have discovered a violation of laws, regulations, or rules in the workplace and cannot discuss their concerns with their superiors or colleagues.

We have also jointly established a system that allows employees to consult with lawyers and solve problems early when they face legal problems outside the workplace.

Code of Conduct of the Shiga Bank (established in April 2007)

1. Establishing trust and fulfilling corporate social responsibility

Fully aware of the public and social mission of banks and our need to fulfill our corporate social responsibility, we will strive to establish unwavering trust.
