

Request for Extension of Period of Stay

Thank you for using Shiga Bank. You are required to apply for a renewal of your current period of stay. Please follow the instructions below and visit the designated branch by the deadline to complete the procedure.

Please note that if you do not complete the procedures for renewing your period of stay by the due date, we will restrict your transactions until the renewal procedures are completed.

Due date	Those whose period of stay for delivery is about to expire	Until the expiration date of the period of stay
-----------------	---	--

< Procedural Procedure >

- (1) Please contact the dealer listed at the bottom of the "Request for Extension of Period of Stay" postcard and make a reservation to visit the store for the period of stay extension procedure.
- (2) Please check the documents to be submitted when you come to the store.

① "Request for Extension of Period of Stay" postcard
② Passbook, cash card * If you have transactions at multiple branches, please bring them with you as well.
③ Any of the identity verification documents (hereinafter referred to as a.~d.)
a. Those who have renewed their residence card	Residence card after renewal of period of stay (original)
b. Those who do not renew their period of stay and return to their home countries.	Your current residence card (original), delivery stamp * You will be asked to complete the account cancellation procedure
c. Those who have acquired Japan nationality (naturalized)	A copy of the family register showing nationality, passport of Japan, etc.
d. Persons with a representative visiting the store	In addition to documents a or c, a photo ID of the representative that confirms they reside with and share the same family name as the applicant. ※ If you are unable to bring the above-mentioned documents, please contact your branch by phone in advance.

※ If you have tax obligations outside Japan, please provide official documentation that includes your taxpayer identification number and your overseas address (tax residence).

※ Upon your visit, we will confirm the address, telephone number, and other details you have registered with our bank. Please be advised that additional documents may be requested based on the results of this verification.

Please note that if you have already completed the procedure because it is mistaken for the "Request for Extension of Period of Stay" postcard.